

Introduction from the Headteacher

Sunday 14th July 2024

Dear All,

Hope you are all well and are enjoying your weekends, I am finally releasing my introductory letter to you all after a long time.

I apologise for my lack-of appearance recently I have just been sorting out a mountain of work that needed to get done. With the endless exam stuff that I have to filter through and with the new policies and criteria in regards to taking up the role of Headteacher especially at such short notice has just made it extremely difficult to fully get involved with the parents. I have made a conscious effort to interact and bond with the children as much as I can and I think it is only fair that I do the same with parents and guardians as well.

I will be holding a Q&A Meeting with anyone who wants to come, sometime in September. I encourage anyone who has any questions, queries or even feedback which is very much appreciated, to come along and I will try to answer as accurately and as any as I can.

I understand that some can't come for whatever reason so feel free to send me a your questions via the main office at: apsenquiries@tagoa.co.uk.

I will release another document soon detailing everything new that is coming next year.

Thank you so much for reading.

Have a great day.

Mr G Lingart
Headteacher
